

K-Love serves myself and my family encouraging us in a good and uplifting way, informing us of local events we are interested in, and connecting us to other Christians. If LPFM broadcasts were to take this away from us we would be losing out on our social and community structure. K-LOVE serves the public by being a voice of reason, clarity and true christian love without bias.